

Anti-Black Racism

Racism and unconscious bias against the Black people and the community.

In Canada:

25% of carding data between 2008 and 2011 were related to young black men

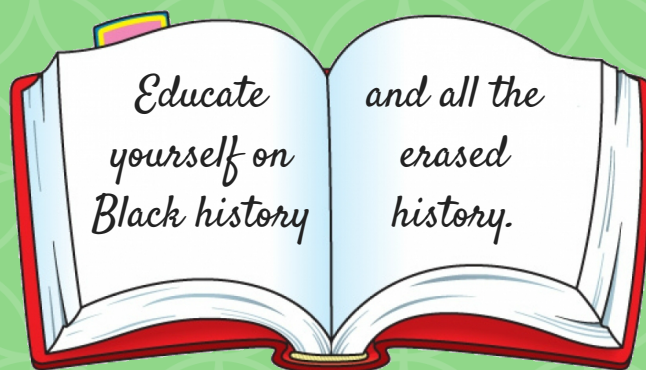

In Halifax, the home of the historic Africville faces anti-black systemic racism.

Between 2005 and 2015, the number of Black inmates in federal prisons rose by more than 71%

Ways to be an effective ally:

Acknowledge and exercise your privilege in a positive way

Support and join organizations that support the Black community. Find ways to get involved!

Visit us at: www.socialchangemakers.ca/

A not-for-profit organization that addresses anti-Black racism in Canadian society. Funded by Legal Aid Ontario, the ACLC provides advice and represents African Canadians in a number of legal forums through test cases.

A non-profit organization formed in 1992 to address the needs and concerns of Black and other racial minorities in law enforcement and the community

A not-for-profit, registered charitable organization that serves all youth but specifically responds to the needs for a Black youth specific service, positioned and resourced to promote access to culturally appropriate supports for youth and their parents.

A Toronto-based multi-service organization, provides all youth, newcomers, people of Black and Caribbean heritage and others in need with opportunities and alternatives that lead to success and positive life choices. Programs include: counselling, child care, educational/employment services and youth development

Visit us at: www.socialchangemakers.ca/